

Friends Association News

Welcome back to school for Term 6! The Friends Association has a busy line up of summer activities for everyone to enjoy including the Summer Fayre, Pick a Present event and an end of year school disco! We really hope everyone can come along and support the events. All the fundraising goes back into the school to help enrich the school experience for the children. And as always a huge thank you to all your support and involvement so far - it is a fantastic school community and we couldn't do it without you all!
